Bahru Stainless Recognized as “Stainless Steel Production Company of the Year in Asia 2025”

We're proud to share that Bahru Stainless has been recognized by Metals & Mining Review Magazine as the “Stainless Steel Production Company of the Year in Asia 2025.”

This recognition highlights our continued commitment to:

- Excellence in Quality delivering world-class stainless steel across austenitic and ferritic grades.
- Sustainability & Innovation advancing responsible manufacturing for a stronger future.
- Regional Impact building Malaysia's role as a strategic stainless steel hub for Asia and beyond.

As Malaysia's only fully integrated cold-rolled stainless steel producer, Bahru Stainless continues to deliver on its promise of Local Strength, Global Quality.
